To: The Honourable Chief Justice, Michael de la Bastide

AND TO: Their Lordships, the Puisne Judges of the High Court of Justice

THE PETITION of Farad Khan, of Soledad Road, Hermitage, Claxton Bay, in the Island of Trinidad, Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, Agricultural Supervisor sheweth that—

1. The Writ of Election for the election of persons to sit in the House of Representatives was duly issued on the 6th day of November, 2000 fixing Nomination Day, the 20th day of November, 2000, as nomination day (hereinafter called "Nomination Day").
2. The Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago provides, by section 47(a) that a person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the House of Representatives if, and shall not be qualified to be so elected unless he is inter alia, a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago of the age of eighteen years or upwards and, by section 48(1)(a) that no person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the House of Representatives who is a citizen of a country other than Trinidad and Tobago having become such a citizen voluntarily, or is under a declaration of allegiance to such a country.
3. Your Petitioner, Mr. Farad Khan is a person who was on Nomination Day, validly nominated as a candidate for the electoral district of Pointe-a-Pierre.
4. The Respondent on Nomination Day was nominated by the delivery to the Returning Officer for the said Electoral District of a nomination paper (including his consent thereto) in prescribed form. He also delivered or caused to be delivered to the Returning Officer a statutory declaration of his qualifications made and subscribed to by him.
5. At the time of the delivery to the Returning Officer of the said statutory declaration and of the Returning Officer's acceptance thereof, the Respondent—
 - (a) was a citizen of a country other than Trinidad and Tobago, namely of Canada, having become such a citizen voluntarily;
 - (b) had, in a public ceremony, sworn a pledge of allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of Canada as a condition of his becoming a citizen of Canada.
6. By his said statutory declaration, the Respondent swore falsely that—
 - (a) he was on Nomination Day duly qualified to be elected as a Member of the House of Representatives for the Electoral District of Pointe-a-Pierre; and
 - (b) he was not on Nomination Day, by virtue of his own act, under any acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience or adherence to a foreign power or state.
7. The Returning Officer accepted the said nomination paper and statutory declaration of the Respondent and certified the same to be valid, and thereafter a Poll was taken on the 11th day of December, 2000 in the said Electoral District.
8. By reason of the matters aforesaid, the Respondent was not qualified to be nominated as a candidate for the Pointe-a-Pierre seat and is disqualified from being elected to the House of Representatives.
9. From about the 7th day of December, 2000, Your Petitioner has advertised the fact of the Respondent's said disqualification and ineligibility by advertisement in several newspapers circulating throughout Trinidad and Tobago namely, the Daily Express, Newsday, the Sunday Express, the Sunday Newsday the Independent, the T & T Mirror and the Sunday Mirror, by the distribution on his behalf to the electors of the Pointe-a-Pierre Electoral District of printed notices, by causing copies of the said notices to be displayed in public places throughout the said Electoral District and by radio and television advertisements throughout Trinidad and Tobago. As well, by speeches made by Your Petitioner and by others on his behalf on political platforms in the said electoral District and elsewhere, informed the said electors of the fact of the Respondent's said disqualification and ineligibility to have been nominated or elected as aforesaid and by the said means has made it known that the nomination of the Respondent will be challenged in Court and also that any and all votes which might be cast for the Respondent would be wasted votes.
10. The said Poll with respect to the election in which Your Petitioner and the Respondent as aforesaid were candidates was conducted on the 11th December, 2000. On the 12th day of December, 2000, the Returning Officer declared that Your Petitioner received 6,847 votes and the Respondent received 11,124 votes and on the 19th day of December, 2000 returned the Respondent to the Chief Election Officer as being duly elected.

11. In the premises, the Respondent's nomination was invalid, null and void and of no effect and accordingly Your Petitioner was the only person standing validly nominated in the said Electoral District, and Your Petitioner stands elected by virtue of his nomination being the only valid nomination and was and is accordingly entitled to be declared elected without the necessity for a Poll being taken.
12. Further and or in the alternative that, the election of the Respondent is invalid, null and void and of no effect and this Honourable Court ought to determine that Your Petitioner was duly returned and elected.

Your Petitioner therefore prays—

1. That it be determined and/or declared that the Respondent, William Beharry Chaitan, was not duly elected and that Your Petitioner was duly elected and is entitled to be returned as the duly elected member for Pointe-a-Pierre.
2. That this Honourable Court do issue all such certificates and directions as may be appropriate.
3. That Your Petitioner may have such further or other relief as may be just.
4. That Your Petitioner may have his costs of this petition.

Dated this 20th day of December, 2000.

THE PETITION of Franklin Khan, of 316B, Sewlal Street, Fyzabad, in the Island of Trinidad, Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, Geologist, showeth that—

1. The Writ of Election for the election of persons to sit in the House of Representatives was duly issued on the 6th day of November, 2000 fixing Nomination Day, the 20th day of November, 2000, as nomination day (hereinafter called "Nomination Day").
2. The Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago provides, by section 47(a) that a person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the House of Representatives if, and shall not be qualified to be so elected unless he is inter alia, a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago of the age of eighteen years or upwards and, by section 48(1)(a) that no person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the House of Representatives who is a citizen of a country other than Trinidad and Tobago having become such a citizen voluntarily, or is under a declaration of allegiance to such a country.

3. Your Petitioner, Mr. Franklin Khan is a person who was on Nomination Day, validly nominated as a candidate for the electoral district of Ortoire/Mayaro.
4. The Respondent on Nomination Day was nominated by the delivery to the Returning Officer for the said Electoral District of a nomination paper (including his consent thereto) in prescribed form. He also delivered or caused to be delivered to the Returning Officer a statutory declaration of his qualifications made and subscribed to by him.
5. At the time of the delivery to the Returning Officer of the said statutory declaration and of the Returning Officer's acceptance thereof, the Respondent—
 - (a) was a citizen of a country other than Trinidad and Tobago, namely of the United States of America, having become such a citizen voluntarily;
 - (b) had, in a public ceremony, renounced and abjured absolutely and entirely all allegiance and fidelity to the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago;
 - (c) was also then under a pledge of allegiance to the United States of America having given such a pledge of allegiance in the said public ceremony as a condition precedent to his becoming a citizen of the United States of America.
6. By his said statutory declaration, the Respondent swore falsely that—
 - (a) he was on Nomination Day duly qualified to be elected as a Member of the House of Representatives for the Electoral District of Ortoire/Mayaro; and
 - (b) he was not on Nomination Day, by virtue of his own act, under any acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience or adherence to a foreign power or state.
7. The Returning Officer accepted the said nomination paper and statutory declaration of the Respondent and certified the same to be valid, and thereafter a Poll was taken on the 11th day of December, 2000 in the said Electoral District.
8. By reason of the matters aforesaid, the Respondent was not qualified to be nominated as a candidate for the Ortoire/Mayaro seat and is disqualified from being elected to the House of Representatives.
9. From about the 7th day of December, 2000, Your Petitioner has advertised the fact of the Respondent's said disqualification and ineligibility by advertisement in several newspapers circulating throughout Trinidad and Tobago namely, the Daily Express, Newsday, the Sunday Express, the Sunday Newsday, the Independent, the T & T Mirror and the Sunday Mirror, by the distribution on his behalf to the electors of the Ortoire/Mayaro Electoral District of printed notices, by causing copies of the said notices to be displayed in public places throughout the said Electoral District and by radio and television advertisements throughout Trinidad and Tobago. As well, by speeches made by Your Petitioner and by others on his behalf on political platforms in the said Electoral District and elsewhere, informed the said electors of the fact of the Respondent's said disqualification and ineligibility to have been nominated or elected as aforesaid and by the said means has made it known that the nomination of the Respondent will be challenged in Court and also that any and all votes which might be cast for the Respondent would be wasted votes.
10. The said Poll with respect to the election in which Your Petitioner and the Respondent as aforesaid were candidates was conducted on the 11th December, 2000. On the 12th day of December, 2000, the Returning Officer declared that Your Petitioner received 9,710 votes and the Respondent received 10,516 votes and on the 19th day of December, 2000 returned the Respondent to the Chief Election Officer as being duly elected.
11. In the premises, the Respondent's nomination was invalid, null and void and of no effect and accordingly Your Petitioner was the only person standing validly nominated in the said Electoral District, and Your Petitioner stands elected by virtue of his nomination being the only valid nomination and was and is accordingly entitled to be declared elected without the necessity for a Poll being taken.
12. Further and or in the alternative, the election of the Respondent is invalid, null and void and of no effect and this Honourable Court ought to determine and/or declare that Your Petitioner was duly returned and elected.

Your Petitioner therefore prays—

1. That it be determined and/or declared that the Respondent, Winston Peters, was not duly elected and that Your Petitioner was duly elected and is entitled to be returned as the duly elected member for Ortoire/Mayaro.
2. That this Honourable Court do issue all such certificates and directions as may be appropriate.
3. That Your Petitioner may have such further or other relief as may be just.
4. That Your Petitioner may have his costs of this petition.

To: The Honourable Acting Chief Justice, the Honourable Mr. Justice Satnarine Sharma

THE PETITION of Paul Phagoo, of 70, Top Street, Corinth Settlement, Ste. Madeleine, in the Island of Trinidad, in the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, Electrician, sheweth that—

1. On the 6th day of November, 2000 His Excellency the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago under the requisite Seal issued a Writ of Election addressed to the Returning Officer for the Electoral District of San Fernando East (the Electoral District) fixing the day for the nomination of candidates to be the 20th day of November, 2000 (Nomination Day) and for a poll to be taken to elect a member to the House of Representatives on the 11th day of December, 2000.
2. Your Petitioner Mr. Paul Phagoo is and was at all material times an elector duly registered under the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, Chap. 2:01 in Polling Division No. 3895 in the Electoral District and had a right to vote at the elections held on the 11th day of December, 2000.
3. On the 3rd day of November, 2000 the Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago was dissolved by the President pursuant to the powers vested in him under section 68 of the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. Further by virtue of section 49(1) of the Constitution the Respondent's seat in Parliament was vacated.
4. On Nomination Day the Respondent was nominated by the delivery to the Returning Officer for the Electoral District, of a nomination paper in the form set out in Form 37 of the Prescribed Forms Rules of the Election Rules. The Election Rules were deemed to be made under section 161 of the Representation of the People Act (the Act). The Respondent also delivered or caused to be delivered to the Returning Officer his consent and a statutory declaration of his qualifications in Form 39 of the Prescribed Forms Rules.
5. By Rule 7(4) of the Election Rules a candidate is required to state in the nomination paper his full name, address and occupation.
6. By Rule 22 of the Election Rules the Election and Boundaries Commission (the Commission) is required as soon as possible, after the nomination of candidates to cause ballot papers to be printed for use in the elections in the form set out at Form 47 of the Prescribed Forms Rules. Rule 22 of The Election Rules also provides that inter alia the name, address and occupation of each candidate shall be printed on the ballot papers exactly as they appear on the nomination paper of that candidate.
7. In his nomination paper in Form 37 the Respondent included as his occupation under the heading "Particulars Regarding Candidates" the words "Member of Parliament".
8. The Returning Officer accepted the nomination paper and statutory declaration of the Respondent and certified the same to be valid. Thereafter the Commission caused ballot papers to be printed in the form set out in the Form 47 of the Prescribed Forms Rules. The said ballot paper contained the names of two candidates namely Dr. Roodal Moonilal and the Respondent. In accordance with Rule 22 of the Election Rules the Respondent's occupation on the ballot paper was stated to be a Member of Parliament.
9. On the 11th day of December, 2000 in pursuance of the Writ of Election a poll was taken in the Electoral District.
10. By reason of the matters aforesaid the Respondent's nomination was, and is, invalid and null and void and of no effect and he was therefore ineligible to be elected. On the 9th and 10th days of December, 2000 the Respondent's ineligibility was advertised by printed notices in the Daily Express and the Sunday Express newspapers respectively. Further by speeches made on political platforms in Trinidad electors were informed and advised of the ineligibility of the Respondent to be elected. By the said means aforesaid it was made known to the electors of the Electoral District that the nomination of the Respondent was invalid, null and void and of no effect and would be challenged in the High Court of Justice by way of representation petition. Further by the said notices the electors of San Fernando East were advised that all votes cast for the Respondent would be considered wasted and thrown away.
11. The ballot papers issued to electors in the Electoral District for the elections held on the 11th December, 2000 contained the names of only two candidates namely the Respondent and Dr. Roodal Moonilal. On or about the 12th December, 2000 after the taking of a poll on the previous day the Returning Officer declared that the Respondent received 10,339 votes and Dr. Roodal Moonilal received 6,626 votes. On the 19th December, 2000 the Respondent was returned to the Chief Election Officer as being duly elected in the Electoral District.

12. In the premises the Respondent was not duly nominated and/or his nomination paper was invalid and was null and void and of no effect.
13. Accordingly Dr. Roodal Moonilal was at all material times the only candidate standing validly nominated in the Electoral District and was and is entitled to be declared elected without the necessity of a poll being taken.
14. Further or in the alternative, the election of the Respondent was invalid, null and void and of no effect and this Honourable Court ought to determine and declare that Dr. Roodal Moonilal was duly returned and elected.

Your Petitioner therefore prays—

1. A declaration that the Respondent's nomination was invalid.
2. That it be determined and/or declared that the Respondent, Patrick Manning was not duly returned or elected and that Dr. Roodal Moonilal was duly elected and is entitled to be returned as the duly elected member for San Fernando East.
3. That the Honourable Court do issue all such certificates and make such orders and give directions as may be appropriate under section 118 of the Act.
4. That Your Petitioner may be granted such further or other relief as may be just or necessary.
5. That the Respondent pay to Your Petitioner the costs of this petition.

Dated this 25th day of December, 2000.

To: The Honourable Acting Chief Justice, the Honourable Mr. Justice Satnarine Sharma

THE PETITION of Princess Smart, of Readymix Private Road, Kelly Village, Eastern Quarry, Laventille, in the Island of Trinidad, in the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, Office Manager, sheweth that—

1. On the 6th day of November, 2000 His Excellency the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago under the requisite Seal issued a Writ of Election addressed to the Returning Officer for the Electoral District of Laventille West (the Electoral District) fixing the day for the nomination of candidates to be the 20th day of November, 2000 (Nomination Day) and for a poll to be taken to elect a member of the House of Representatives on the 11th day of December, 2000.
2. Your Petitioner Princess Smart is and was at all material times an elector duly registered under the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, Chap. 2:01 in Polling Division No. 1265 in the Electoral District and had a right to vote at the elections held on the 11th day of December, 2000.

3. On the 3rd day of November, 2000 the Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago was dissolved by the President pursuant to the powers vested in him under section 68 of the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. Further by virtue of section 49(1) of the Constitution the Respondent's seat in Parliament was vacated.
4. On Nomination Day the Respondent was nominated by the delivery to the Returning Officer for the Electoral District, of a nomination paper in the form set out in Form 37 of the Prescribed Forms Rules of the Election Rules. The Election Rules were deemed to be made under section 161 of the Representation of the People Act (the Act). The Respondent also delivered or caused to be delivered to the Returning Officer his consent and a statutory declaration of his qualifications in Form 39 of the Prescribed Forms Rules.
5. By Rule 7(4) of the Election Rules a candidate is required to state in the nomination paper his full name, address and occupation.
6. By Rule 22 of the Election Rules the Election and Boundaries Commission (the Commission) is required as soon as possible, after the nomination of candidates to cause ballot papers to be printed for use in the elections in the form set out at Form 47 of the Prescribed Forms Rules. Rule 22 of The Election Rules also provides that inter alia the name, address and occupation of each candidate shall be printed on the ballot papers exactly as they appear on the nomination paper of that candidate.
7. In her nomination paper in Form 37 the Respondent included as her occupation under the heading "Particulars Regarding Candidates" the words "Member of Parliament".
8. The Returning Officer accepted the nomination paper and statutory declaration of the Respondent and certified the same to be valid. Thereafter the Commission caused ballot papers to be printed in the form set out in the Form 47 of the Prescribed Forms Rules. The said ballot paper contained the names of two candidates namely Mr. Kenneth Munroe Brown and the Respondent. In accordance with Rule 22 of the Election Rules the Respondent's occupation on the ballot paper was stated to be Member of Parliament.
9. On the 11th day of December, 2000 in pursuance of the Writ of Election a poll was taken in the Electoral District.
10. By reason of the matters aforesaid the Respondent's nomination was, and is, invalid and null and void and of no effect and she was therefore ineligible to be elected. On the 9th and 10th days of December, 2000 the Respondent's ineligibility was advertised by printed notices in the Daily Express and the Sunday Express newspapers respectively. Further by speeches made on political platforms in Trinidad electors were informed and advised of the ineligibility of the Respondent to be elected. Further by the said notices the electors of Laventille West were advised that all votes cast for the Respondent would be considered wasted and thrown away.
11. The ballot papers issued to electors for the elections in the Electoral District held on the 11th December, 2000 contained the names of only two candidates namely the Respondent and Mr. Kenneth Munroe Brown. On or about the 12th December, 2000 after the taking of a poll on the previous day the Returning Officer certified that the Respondent was elected as the member for the Electoral District having received the most votes. On the 19th December, 2000 the Respondent was returned to the Chief Election Officer as being duly elected in the Electoral District.
12. In the premises the Respondent was not duly nominated and/or her nomination paper was invalid and was null and void and of no effect.
13. Accordingly Mr. Kenneth Munroe Brown was at all material times the only candidate standing validly nominated in the Electoral District and was and is entitled to be declared elected without the necessity of a poll being taken.
14. Further or in the alternative, the election of the Respondent was invalid, null and void and of no effect and this Honourable Court ought to determine and declare that Mr. Kenneth Munroe Brown was duly returned and elected.

Your Petitioner therefore prays—

1. A declaration that the Respondent's nomination was invalid.
2. That it be determined and/or declared that the Respondent, Eulalie James was not duly returned or elected and that Mr. Kenneth Munroe Brown was duly elected and is entitled to be returned as the duly elected member for Laventille West.
3. That the Honourable Court do issue all such certificates and make such orders and give directions as may be appropriate under section 118 of the Act.
4. That Your Petitioner may be granted such further or other relief as may be just or necessary.
5. That the Respondent pay to Your Petitioner the costs of this petition.
