THE MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS (TRUSTEES, EXCHEQUER AND AUDIT ACT, THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (INCORPORATION) ACT, PROCEEDS OF CRIME, INCOME TAX, COMPANIES, PARTNERSHIPS, SECURITIES, TAX INFORMATION EXCHANGE AGREEMENTS, THE NON-PROFIT ORGANISATIONS AND MUTUAL ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANCE IN TAX MATTERS) ACT, 2023

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

This Bill seeks to amend the Trustees Ordinance, Cap. 4 of 1939, Exchequer and Audit Act, Chap. 69:01, the Minister of Finance (Incorporation) Act, Chap. 69:03, Proceeds of Crime Act, Chap. 11:27, Income Tax Act, Chap. 75:01, the Companies Act, Chap. 81:01, the Partnerships Act, Chap. 81:02, the Securities Act, Chap. 83:02, the Tax Information Exchange Agreements Act, No. 5 of 2020, the Non-Profit Organisations Act, No. 7 of 2019 and the Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters Act, No. 7 of 2020.

The Bill contains thirteen clauses.

Clause 1 of the Bill contains the short title of the Act for which this is the Bill.

Clause 2 of the Bill would provide for the commencement of the Act on Proclamation by the President.

Clause 3 of the Bill would seek to amend the Trustees Ordinance, Cap. 4 of 1939. The amendment would insert provisions relative to the beneficial ownership. It first provides in proposed section 10A(1) that section 10B is to be read and have effect as if a corporation sole, a body corporate created under any written law except under the Act or an international organization where members include two or more countries or territories or their government, were an individual, even if they are legal persons under the laws by which they are governed. The clause goes on to define the term “beneficial owner”.

Proposed section 10B would require a trustee of every express trust, or the administrator of any other form of legal arrangement, to ascertain and obtain information as to all the beneficial owners of the express trust or other form of legal arrangement.

Proposed section 10C requires that the beneficial owner submit a statement to the trustee within fourteen days of commencement of the section or acquiring the interest, and thereafter would require the beneficial owner to submit to the trustee of an express trust or the administrator of any other form of legal arrangement, within a period of fourteen days from the date of the change a statement in the prescribed form together with any supporting documentation. An offence is created when a person fails, without reasonable cause, to submit a statement. It is also an offence for a person to provide false information in a statement.

The proposed section will also provide that a trustee of every express trust or the administrator of any other legal arrangement is required to ensure that the information he maintains, in respect of beneficial owners of the trust or legal arrangement, is current and correct and where a trustee of an express trust or the administrator of any other legal arrangement fails to take reasonable steps to ascertain and obtain all information as to the beneficial owners of the express trust or other legal arrangement, to maintain and keep updated its register of beneficial owners, to ensure that the information it maintains in respect of beneficial owners of the express trust or other legal arrangement is current and correct or knowingly and recklessly, to file a return under subsection (1), within the specified period, the trustee of the express trust or administrator of the other legal arrangement commits an offence.

Proposed section 10E would require the Registrar General to maintain a register of beneficial owners of express trusts and other forms of legal arrangements. Further where the Registrar General, receives a return pursuant to section 10C, he is required to update the register of beneficial owners.

Clause 4 of the Bill would seek to amend the Exchequer and Audit Act, Chap. 69:01. The amendments would introduce the concept of beneficial ownership and provide for beneficial ownership information. Proposed section 31A would set out the definitions of “beneficial owner” and “Member”. Proposed section 31B would require a statutory body, which is subject to the provisions of this Act, to ascertain and obtain information as to all the beneficial owners of the statutory body, which existed before the commencement of the Miscellaneous Provisions (Trustees, Exchequer and Audit Act, the Minister of Finance (Incorporation) Act, Proceeds of Crime, Income Tax, Companies, Partnerships, Securities, Tax Information Exchange Agreements, the Non-Profit Organisations and Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters) Act, 2023. The section would contain a number of subsections which would deal with the requirements on statutory bodies, to issue a notice in the prescribed form to all members within thirty days of the commencement of the subsection; the subsections would also require statutory bodies to maintain and keep updated a register of all its beneficial owners.

New section 31C would provide that where the name of a person is entered in the register of members of a statutory body as the holder of ten percent or more of the membership interest in that the statutory body and that person is the beneficial owner of such membership interest, that person would be deemed to be the beneficial owner. The proposed section would also provide for the instances where the name of a person is entered in the register of members of the statutory body as the holder of ten percent or more of the membership interests in that the statutory body but the person, is not the beneficial owner of such membership interests. It will also provide for where there are changes to the beneficial owner or beneficial ownership information. Under proposed section 31D would require the Treasury to keep a Register of beneficial owners and section 31E would require the Treasury to keep the Register updated. Failure to ascertain the beneficial ownership information and keep the Register constitute an offence.

Clause 5 of the Bill would seek to amend the Minister of Finance (Incorporation) Act, Chap. 69:03. The amendments would introduce the concept of beneficial ownership and provide for beneficial ownership information. The proposed amendment section 2 would set out the definition of “beneficial owner”. Proposed section 8A would require Corporation Sole or any person acting under delegated authority of Corporation Sole to maintain all beneficial ownership information in respect of Corporation Sole. The section would require Corporation Sole or any person acting under delegated authority of Corporation Sole to determine the beneficial ownership information of Corporation Sole, which existed before the commencement of the Miscellaneous Provisions (Trustees, Exchequer and Audit Act, Minister of Finance (Incorporation) Act, Proceeds of Crime, Income Tax, Companies, Partnerships, Securities, Tax Information Exchange Agreements, the Non-Profit Organisations and Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters) Act, 2023.

Under the section Corporation Sole or any person acting under delegated authority of Corporation Sole is prohibited from removing beneficial ownership information from its register, for a period of six years after a person ceases to be a beneficial owner or the dissolution of the Non-Profit Organisation. Failure to ascertain the beneficial ownership information and keep the Register constitute an offence. Corporation Sole or any person acting under delegated authority of Corporation Sole is required to annually verify information on record through the filing of its annual return and make the register under section 8A(3) available to the Board of Inland Revenue or to any other person as the Minister may by Order prescribe, where required under any Tax Information Sharing Agreement to which Trinidad and Tobago is a party.

Clause 6 of the Bill would seek to amend the Financial Obligations Regulations which fall under the Proceeds of Crime Act. Section 5 of the Financial Obligations Regulations would introduce the definition of “beneficial ownership” and to provide an interpretation for the term “the natural person in relation to legal arrangements”.

Clause 7 of the Bill would seek to amend the Income Tax Act, Chap. 75:01 to delete section 4(8) and substitute a new subsection that would provide that notwithstanding any law to the contrary, if taxpayer information is received by the Board from another jurisdiction under a tax information sharing agreement for the exchange of information in relation to taxes, the Board shall only disclose such taxpayer information to other agencies and the Board and other agencies shall only use such taxpayer information, as is permitted under the terms of the tax information sharing agreement for the exchange of information in relation to taxes.

Clause 8 of the Bill would seek to amend the Companies Act, Chap. 81:01 to first correct in relation to the citation of the section that was amended from section 3 to section 5. Section 33 of the Act is also being amended to delete subsection (11) and replace with a new subsection (11) and a number of a new subsections. New subsection (11) will provide that on or from a day to be appointed share warrants or bearer share warrants shall cease to be valid in Trinidad and Tobago and subject to subsection (4), shall for all purposes be cancelled and be of no value. New subsection (11A) would require a Company shall convert any share warrant or bearer share warrant which has not been surrendered for conversion prior to the appointed date. New subsection (11B) would provide that a Company may, with the approval of the Registrar, convert any share warrant or bearer share warrant that is surrendered within a period of three months after the appointed date if satisfied that the failure to present the share warrant or bearer share warrant for conversion prior to the appointed date resulted from circumstances beyond the control of the true owner of the share warrant or bearer share warrant or that there was some other good or sufficient reason for the failure. Subsection (11) defines “appointed day”. New subsection (11D) would provide that notwithstanding the imposition of a penalty under subsection (9) for failing to surrender a share warrant or bearer share warrant, the holder of a share warrant or bearer share warrant that has been cancelled may prior to the expiration of eighteen months from the date of the commencement of this subsection, apply to the Court for the reinstatement of the share warrant or bearer share warrant as a share in the name of the holder and the instruction to the company for the entry of the name of the holder in the register of shareholders in respect of the share or shares represented by the instrument in accordance with the terms of issue thereof. New subsection (11E) would require an applicant, where he makes an application under subsection (11D) for the reinstatement of a share warrant or bearer share warrant, to provide evidence to the Court that he, at the time of cancellation, was the lawful holder of an uninterrupted chain of share transfer from the creation of the company or to the last shareholder known to the company through written evidence, such as a contract for sale of shares or a share purchase warrant. He must also provide reasonable grounds for not having complied with the registration requirements and evidence that the applicant was the holder of the bearer instrument at the time of the cancellation. Under new subsection (11F) the holder of a share warrant or bearer share warrant that has been cancelled who fails to apply for reinstatement under subsection (11D) shall, after the period set out in that section, no longer be able to apply for reinstatement.

This section would also amend section 139 of the Companies Act to delete the definition of “broker” and replace it with a new definition that would refer to the Securities Act, 2012. Section 190 is also being amended to correct a cross reference. Section 248 is being amended in section 248 to insert a new paragraph to now provide also that a person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under Part VA of the Act, which deals with beneficial ownership may apply to the Court for an order requiring the Registrar to change his decision; and upon the application, the Court may so order, and make any further order it thinks fit.

Section 318(1)(n) would now provide that the period of time for an external company to file with the Registrar a statement instead of being fourteen days from establishment of a place of business in Trinidad and Tobago will now be if it established business before the commencement of this Act, within 90 days of the commencement of this Act they will now be required to file the statement.

The amendment to section 333A(9) would see its deletion and a new subsection (9) and other subsections be inserted. New subsection (9) would provide that if a bearer share, bearer share certificate share warrant or bearer share warrant is cancelled under subsection (8), the holder may within four years apply to the court.

Clause 9 of the Bill would seek to amend the Partnership Act, Chap. 81:02. The amendments would first introduce the definition of “beneficial ownership”. It would then in section 20B require a partnership, within twelve months of the coming into force of this Act to ascertain and obtain the beneficial ownership information of all partners beneficial owners holding an interest in the partnership prior to or after the commencement of this Act. This section would also require a partnership to issue annually a notice in the prescribed form to all partners requiring a statement, together with any supporting documentation, which is to be submitted to the partnership. An offence is created where the partnership fails to take reasonable steps to ascertain and obtain all information as to the beneficial owners holding an interest in the partnership. Provision is made for a partnership to rely on the declaration received in good faith by the partnership under section 20C as a defence for an offence. The provision is made that requires every partner within thirty days of the issue of a notice to submit a statement, to the partnership, stating the capacity which the partner making the statement holds and indicating the person who is the beneficial owner by name and address and other particulars sufficient to enable that person to be identified. Where there are changes to beneficial ownership information, the partners are required to send that information to the partnership who would in turn send that information to the Registrar General. Failure to do so is an offence.

New 20D requires the Registrar General to maintain a register of beneficial owners and the register of beneficial owners upon receipt of a return pursuant to section 20C, shall update.

Clause 10 of the Bill would seek to amend the Securities Act, Chap. 83:02. The amendment to section 5 would first introduce the definition of “beneficial ownership”, “Beneficial Ownership Information” and “reporting entity”. A new section 136A is introduced that requires every reporting entity to establish and maintain a register of their beneficial owners as defined in section 4 and such register must contain beneficial ownership information. The amendment sets out a list of such beneficial ownership information. The amendment will require a reporting entity to take reasonable steps to ascertain, obtain and verify all required information pertaining to its beneficial owners. The amendment would also provide that a reporting entity is not allowed to remove beneficial ownership information from its register for a period of six years after a person ceases to be a beneficial owner or on the dissolution of the entity. The amendment would provide that in identifying individuals who are the beneficial owners, a reporting entity is entitled to rely on any information received in good faith under section 137 as a defence for a contravention of subsection (2), unless the reporting entity has reason to believe that such information is misleading or false. Under the amendments a reporting entity is required to provide beneficial ownership information to the Commission annually, within twenty-one days of the end of the financial year of the reporting entity in a manner and form approved by the Commission. A reporting entity is required to notify the Commission of any changes in the submitted beneficial ownership information as they arise and in any event within fourteen days after such change occurred or became effective and the Commission is required to update the Register of Beneficial Ownership immediately after notification of any changes. The Commission is also required to establish and maintain a record of the submitted beneficial ownership information in a Register of Beneficial Ownership and verify the beneficial ownership information provided to the Commission through an on-site inspection of the register and other books and records of the reporting issuer or through other means available.

The section would now make it mandatory for a reporting issuer or reporting entity by notice in writing, for the purpose of complying with section 136A or where otherwise required under this Act, to require any holder of its securities within a time specified in a notice to indicate in writing the capacity in which he holds any securities of the reporting issuer and where he holds them otherwise than as beneficial owner, to indicate in writing so far as it lies within his knowledge, the person who has an interest. The amendment would also insert after the words “a reporting issuer” the words “or reporting entity” or wherever they occur.

Section 138 is also being amended to include a number of sections for which breaches would be considered to be offences.

Clause 11 of the Bill would seek to amend the Tax Information Exchange Agreements Act, Act No. 5 of 2020. Section 5 of the Act is being amended to insert a new subsection which would provide that where the President, declares a double taxation arrangement under section 93 of the Income Tax Act, that Agreement is for the purposes of the Tax Information Exchange Agreements Act be deemed to be a declared agreement. A new section is also being inserted as section 12 to provide that notwithstanding section 11, where in the course of making a notification under section 11 by the Board, the requesting jurisdiction informs the Board that the notification is likely to undermine the success of an investigation being conducted by the requesting jurisdiction, the Board may withhold such notification. The section provides further that where a notification under section 11 is identified by the requesting jurisdiction as no longer posing a risk, the reporting financial institution shall then notify the account holder in accordance with section 11.

Clause 12 of the Bill would seek to amend the Non-Profit Organisations Act. The amendment to section 3 would first introduce the definition of “beneficial ownership”. The amendments would set out the obligations on beneficial ownership information similar as to what exists for Companies and Partnerships. The amendment introduces new sections 21A to 21C. New section 21A would require a Non-Profit Organisation to ascertain and obtain information as to all the beneficial owners of the Non-Profit Organisation, whether before the commencement of this Act. It requires a Non-Profit Organisation to issue a notice to all members whose liability is limited by guarantee where a Non-Profit Organisation issued Membership prior to or after the commencement of this Act, and who failed to comply with the requirement to ascertain all beneficial owners or at the time of the issuance of membership interests, where a Non-Profit Organisation issues membership interests after the commencement of this subsection. The amendment requires a Non-Profit Organisation shall maintain and keep updated a register of all the beneficial. The amendment prohibits a Non-Profit Organisation from removing beneficial ownership information from its register, for a period of six years after a person ceases to be a beneficial owner or the dissolution of the Non-Profit Organisation.

The new section would also require a Non-Profit Organisation to take reasonable steps to verify information on the register of the beneficial owners of the Non-Profit Organisation. It also makes it an offence for a Non-Profit Organisation to fail to maintain its register of beneficial owners to take reasonable steps to ascertain and obtain all information as to the beneficial owners holding an interest in the Non-Profit Organisation. Further a Non-Profit Organisation is required annually to verify information on record at the Office of the Registrar General through the filing of its annual return.

The new section would also provide that in identifying individuals who are the beneficial owners under subsection (1), a Non-Profit Organisation is entitled to rely on the declaration received in good faith by the Non-Profit Organisation under section 21B(2) as a defence for an offence unless the Non-Profit Organisation has reason to believe that the declaration is misleading or false.

New sections 21B would provide that where, prior to or upon the commencement of this section, the name of a person is entered in the register of members of a Non-Profit Organisation as the holder of ten per cent or more of the membership interest in that Non-Profit Organisation and that person is the beneficial owner of such membership interest the person is exempt from submitting a statement in the prescribed form to the Non-Profit Organisation, he person will be deemed to be a beneficial owner and recorded on the register of beneficial owners maintained by the Non-Profit Organisation and the Non-Profit Organisation shall, within thirty days of the name of the beneficial owner being recorded on its register, deliver to the Registrar, a return in the prescribed form. The section requires, where the person entered in the register of members of a Non-Profit Organisation as the holder of ten percent or more of the membership interests in that Non-Profit Organisation but the person, is not the beneficial owner of such membership interests the person is required, within fourteen days of the issue of a notice under section 21A, to submit a statement in the prescribed form to the Non-Profit Organisation. Provision is made that where a notice is not received under section 337B and a member is not the beneficial owner and the name of the beneficial owner is not entered on the register, the member and the beneficial owner shall submit a statement to that effect.

The section requires a person who is the beneficial owner of ten per cent or more of the membership interest of the Non-Profit Organisation, but his name is not entered in the register of members, within fourteen days of acquiring the beneficial interest or alternatively, the issue of a notice under section 21A(2), to submit a statement in the prescribed form to the Non-Profit Organisation. If there are changes in the beneficial ownership of the membership of a Non-Profit Organisation or the particulars of the beneficial owner, both the person referred to in subsection (2) and the beneficial owner specified in subsection (4) is required, within a period of fourteen days from the date of the change, to submit a statement in the prescribed form to the Non-Profit Organisation. An offence is created for failing, without reasonable cause, to submit a statement as required under this section.

The section requires a Non-Profit Organisation to update the register established by it for such purpose and, within thirty days from the receipt of the statement, deliver to the Registrar a return. In new subsection (8), where a Non-Profit Organisation fails to file a return and any director and officer of the Non-Profit Organisation who knowingly and recklessly fails to file the return commits an offence.

Under new section 21C the Registrar is required to maintain a register of beneficial owners and the Registrar, upon receipt of a return pursuant to section 21A(2), shall update the register of beneficial owners.

Clause 13 of the Bill would seek to amend the Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters Act, No. 7 of 2020. The clause would first amend section 4 of the Act to ensure a number of definitions meet the requirements of the Standards contained in Schedule 1. The clause would also amend section 11(1) to change the cross references from (2) to (3). The other amendments that are made to subsection are to comply with the standard including the deletion and substitution of subsection (2)(e). The amendment to subsection (3) would correct the period for the exchange of information.

The clause would also amend section 12 of the Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters Act, to comply with the standard. The clause would delete subsection (3) and substitute it to clarify the day by which a reporting financial institution is required to report information under section 11(a).

Subsection (5) is deleted and two new subsections are substituted to provide that if the requesting jurisdiction informs the Board that the notification is likely to undermine the success of an investigation being conducted, the Board may withhold the notification. Where the requesting jurisdiction is of the view that the notification is no longer required the Board may inform the account holder.

In subsection (7) by amending subsection (1) to delete the words “the exchange of” and replace with the word “reporting”. In paragraph (b) by deleting the words “and exchanged” and by deleting paragraph (c) to make it the substantive subsection. A cross reference error is corrected in subsection (1) and a new subsection (10) to provide that an offence is committed where a reporting financial institution fails to keep records as required under section 17 including records for non-reportable accounts, fails to file or file on time the information required by subsection (3), fails to carry out the due diligence, as required by this section including failing to obtain self-certification for any individual or provides a false statement or report to the Board.

The clause would seek to amend section 15 in subsection (1) provide that in respect of tax avoidance it is an offence for a person to any arrangement or engages in any practice, not only the main purpose but also one of the main purposes of which can reasonably be considered to be to avoid a requirement imposed under this Act or regulations made hereunder. The clause would also delete subsection (2) and substitute it with a new subsection that would provide that a person enters into an arrangement or engages in any practice the main purposes of which can be reasonably be considered to be to avoid a requirement imposed under this Act or regulations made hereunder, this Act and regulations made hereunder, shall apply as if the person had not entered into the arrangement or engaged in the practice.

The clause would also amend section 16 to delete subsections (6), (7) and (8).

Section 17 is also amended to now also require reporting financial institution to not only keep records of the steps undertaken and any records obtained or created for the purpose of complying with this Act and the Common Reporting Standard Due Diligence Requirements required under Schedule 1 but also any records relied upon.

Section 18 will also be amended to correct a cross reference.

The Schedules are amended to ensure consistency with the Standards and the empowering sections reference.
