of Justice (Indictable Proceedings) Act, 2011 but the preliminary enquiry began before the coming into operation of the Administration of Justice (Indictable Proceedings) Act, 2011; or

(c) the offence was committed in South Trinidad.

(12) In all indictable matters, the indictment shall be filed in Tobago, where—

(a) a person was committed to trial in Tobago prior to the coming into operation of the Administration of Justice (Indictable Proceedings) Act, 2011;

(b) a person was committed to trial in Tobago after the coming into operation of the Administration of Justice (Indictable Proceedings) Act, 2011 but the preliminary enquiry began before the coming into operation of the Administration of Justice (Indictable Proceedings) Act, 2011; or

(c) the offence was committed in Tobago

(13) In circumstances where an offence occurred virtually, a specific physical location cannot be established for an offence or it is otherwise in the interest of justice, the Director of Public Prosecutions may exercise a discretion to file an indictment at a designated Registry of the Supreme Court for the Criminal Court Division in North Trinidad, South Trinidad and Tobago and in exercising the discretion, the Director of Public Prosecutions shall have regard to the following:

- (a) the place where the offence occurred; or
- (b) if the offence occurred virtually or a specific physical location cannot be established for the offence—
 - (i) the residence of the accused;
 - (ii) the residence of the alleged victim; or
 - (iii) the convenience of the witnesses; and
- (c) the interest of justice.

(14) Notwithstanding subsections (7) to (13), a Judge or judicial officer may in any case either before the trial or on the arraignment of any person, order that the trial of such person shall take place in North Trinidad, if satisfied that—

- (a) a fair trial cannot be had at San Fernando or in Tobago;
- (b) it is more convenient to the parties to hold the trial in North Trinidad;
or
- (c) the interest of justice requires the matter to be held elsewhere.

(15) Notwithstanding the place where a complaint or indictment is filed under this section, the Court shall give directions as to the place and time for the trial and if the Court directs that the case is to be tried at a place other than where the complaint or indictment was filed, all witnesses and accused persons who are bound by recognisance or summoned to attend the trial shall be summoned to attend at such place or by such means as directed by the Court.

(16) Notwithstanding subsections (7) to (13) and without prejudice to subsection (4), the Court, on its own discretion or on an application of the Director of Public Prosecutions or an accused, may transfer a matter for trial from one place designated under subsection (2) to another such designated place, whenever the Court determines that—

- (a) the ends of justice so require;
- (b) having regard to all the circumstances it is desirable to do so in the interests of securing the more expeditious hearing and determination of cases; or
- (c) the particular place is appropriate having regard to any special criminal court procedure prescribed for such matter in accordance with section 24 of the Criminal Division and District Criminal and Traffic Courts Act, 2018.

Act No. 12 of 2018

(17) Where a matter is transferred under subsection (16), all recognisances, subpoenas and proceedings in or relating to the case shall thereupon be deemed to be returnable at such place, and all witnesses who are bound by recognisance or summoned to attend the trial shall attend at such place.

(18) Subject to any special or general directions by the Chief Justice from time to time, a Judge or judicial officer may hear matters virtually, in person or in hybrid mode.

(19) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a Court from sitting virtually or from hearing any attorney, party or witness virtually or by any electronic means that is not expressly prohibited by law.”; and

(c) by repealing section 4 and substituting the following section:

“Reference to Port-of-Spain, San Fernando and Tobago 4. Where in any written law reference is made to Port-of-Spain, San Fernando or Scarborough as the places where criminal trials are heard, they are deemed to be a reference to North Trinidad, South Trinidad or Tobago respectively.”
