How to Request Information:

- General Procedure
Our policy is to answer all requests, both oral and written, for information, however, in order to have the rights given to an applicant under the Freedom of Information Act (for example, the right to challenge a decision if your request for information is refused) you must make your request in writing.

The applicant must therefore complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) available at our Head Office- Human Resource Management and Administration or from our Designated Officer, for information that is not readily available in the public domain. [See Section 7(1)(a)(vi)]
- Addressing Requests
To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to the Designated Officer of the Corporation. [See Section 7(1)(a)(vi)].
- Details in the Request
Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with our Designated Officer.
- Requests not handled under the FOIA
A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information that is currently available in the public domain, either from the Corporation or from another public authority (e.g. material contained in Acts, Legal Notices and Gazettes) brochures and pamphlets etc.).

Responding to your Request:

- Retrieving Documents
The Corporation is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession and can be retrieved.
- Furnishing Documents
An applicant is entitled to copies of information that the Corporation has in its possession or custody of power, and is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If the Corporation cannot make a legal copy of a document to be released, it may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, the Corporation will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in the reply. Extra copies will be provided at the cost of reproduction.

Please note that the Corporation is not compelled to:
 - Create new documents
 - Perform research on behalf of the applicant
