Port of Spain

Section 7(i)(a)(iv)

The Ministry does not have any documents or literature available by subscription.

Section 7 (i)(a)(v)General Policy for Accessing a Document from the Ministry of Health:*How to request information:*General Procedure:

In order to have the rights given to you by the Act (for example, the right to challenge a decision if your request for information is refused), you must make your request in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) available at the office of General Administration, Ministry of Health, for information that is not readily available in the public domain.

Addressing Requests:

Refer to Section 7(1)(a)(vi) for further details.

Details in the Request:

Applicants should provide details that will allow for easy identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with our designated officer.

Requests not handled under the FOIA:

The request under the Act will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information that is currently available in the public domain, either from this Ministry or another public authority, for example brochures and pamphlets etc.

Responding to Request:Retrieving Documents

The Ministry of Health is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in possession of the Ministry of Health or can be retrieved from storage. If the information is stored in the National Archives or another storage centre, it will be retrieved in order to process your request.

Furnishing Documents

The Ministry of Health is required to:

- i. Furnish copies of information in its possession, custody or power.
- ii. Furnish only one copy of a document.
- iii. Furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in replying.

The Ministry of Health is not required to:

- i. Create new documents. For example, write a new program so that a computer will print information in the preferred format for the applicant.
- ii. Perform research for the applicant.
- iii. Reconstruct any illegible copy of a document for the applicant.

Time Limits

General – The Act sets a time limit of no later than thirty (30) calendar days for a decision to be taken as to whether to disclose the documents requested. In failing to meet the deadline, the Act gives the applicant the right to proceed as if the request has been denied. The Ministry of Health will diligently try to comply with the time limits but if it appears that processing the request may take longer than the statutory limit, an acknowledgement of the request and a status report will be provided. Since there is a possibility that the request may have been incorrectly sent or misdirected, the applicant should call or write to confirm the receipt of the request and to ascertain its status.

Time Allowed – The Ministry of Health will, as far as reasonably protocols, determine whether to accede to the request for access of information, as soon as practicable but no later than thirty (30) days from the date the request was received. If it is determined that the applicant is entitled to the information requested, then provision will be made for the inspection of the document requested.

Prior to the commencement of the Act, old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may, therefore, be impossible.

Various laws, regulations and manuals give the time periods for keeping records before they may be destroyed, for example the Exchequer and Audit Act, Chapter 69:01.

Section 7(1)(a)(vi):

Officers in the Public Authority Responsible for:

1. The initial receipt of and action upon notices under Section 10 of the Act;
2. Requests for access to documents under Section 13 of the Act: and
3. Applications for corrections of Personal Information under Section 36 of the Act.

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to –
