TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO LIMITED 2024 PUBLIC STATEMENT IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTIONS 7, 8 AND 9 OF THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1999

Under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), Chapter 22:02, Telecommunications Services of Trinidad and Tobago Limited ("TSTT") is required by law to publish this statement, which lists the documents and information generally available to the public and how members of the public can set out to obtain same.

The FOIA was assented to on November 4, 1999, and came into full effect on August 30, 2001, to "give members of the public a general right (with exceptions) of access to official documents of public authorities and for matters related thereto." The Act provides members of the public with:

1. A legal right for each person to access information held by TSTT;
2. A legal right for each person to have official information relating to him/her amended where it is incomplete, incorrect, or misleading;
3. A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding applicant's request for information under the FOIA;
4. A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

TSTT publishes the following statement as approved by the Minister of Public Utilities:

SECTION 7 STATEMENTS

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

TSTT was formed in 1991 with the merger of the domestic telecommunications company, TELCO, and the international carrier, TEXTEL. TSTT is 51% owned by National Enterprises Limited ("NEL") and 49% owned by Cable & Wireless (West Indies) Limited ("C&W"). In 2017, TSTT acquired Ampla Communications Limited, formerly Massy Communications Ltd, as a wholly-owned subsidiary of TSTT.

TSTT's telecommunications business is regulated by the Telecommunications Authority of Trinidad and Tobago ("TATT") established by virtue of the Telecommunications Act 2001, Chapter 47:31. TSTT's product offering includes fixed line services, mobile services on a frequency division duplex (FDD) LTE 4G network and fixed wireless broadband services on a time division duplex (TDD) LTE network, High-Speed Internet and High Definition TV on a next generation fibre optic telecommunications backbone using Fibre to the Home GPON technology. TSTT also provides metro Ethernet network services, video conferencing, subscription-based IP television ("IPTV"), digital terrestrial television, as well as business and home alarm monitoring services. Its business customers include key industry companies in the finance, energy, Government, manufacturing, education, healthcare, and tourism sectors.

Responding to Requests

v. Retrieving Documents

TSTT is required to furnish copies of documents that it has in its possession, or that can be retrieved from its records.

vi. Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information which TSTT has in its possession, custody or power. TSTT is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If TSTT is unable to make a legible copy of a document to be released, it may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, TSTT will furnish the best copy possible and note the quality in its reply. Please note that the TSTT is not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents
- (b) Conduct research for the applicant

vii. Time Limits

TSTT will determine whether to grant the request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than thirty days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, the applicant will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

v. Refusal of Requests

If it is determined that the information requested cannot be disclosed, the applicant will be informed of the refusal and the rights of the applicant according to the FOIA.

vi. Fees and Charges

In accordance with Section 17 (1) of the FOIA "No fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document." Section 17 (2) states that "Where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some other form, such as on tape, disc, film or other material, the applicant shall pay the prescribed fee."

The Freedom of Information (Fees and Charges) Regulations prescribe the fees to be incurred in making the documents available. Where such fees are payable, the applicant is entitled to receive the documents within seven days of payment of the relevant fee. If TSTT fails to provide the information within the seven-day period, the applicant will be entitled to a refund of the fees paid in addition to free access to the documents requested.
