The Unit's primary functions include tracking the progress, outcomes and impact of projects, programmes and policies, evaluating the Ministry's performance and reporting on its activities.

Economic Research, Policy and Planning Division (ERPPD)

The Economic Research Policy and Planning Division is the technical arm of the Ministry of Public Utilities charged with implementing and developing policy undertaking, research and planning to provide strategic direction for the entities within the Utilities Sector. The Division also provides oversight and monitoring of the financial performance of the Ministry and agencies under the Ministry's purview. The Division conducts its work through four (4) Units:

- The Research Unit;
- The Communications Sector Management Unit (Telecommunications and Postal);
- The Electrification Sector Management Unit; and
- The Water Sector Management Unit

Sectoral Programmes and Projects Unit (SPPU)

The Sectoral Programmes and Projects Unit is responsible for monitoring the implementation of sectoral programmes and projects (including capital projects), risk management and project reporting.

Customer Service Unit

The Customer Service Unit is responsible for pursuing greater efficiency and effectiveness of the Ministry's service delivery systems to customers. These services include but are not limited to implementing customer service improvement initiatives, addressing Utility Complaints/Queries, responding to requests under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 1999, and the administration of Standby Generator Licenses.

Communications Unit

The primary responsibility of the Communication Unit is to develop and implement the Ministry's communication strategy in support of Government's plans, programmes and initiatives.

Legal Services Division

The division is responsible for providing legal advice and the drafting of legal documents for matters under the Ministry's purview. The division liaises with legal counsels in the public and private sectors for the preparation of legal briefs to external stakeholders including the Chief State Solicitor and the Solicitor General on court matters pertaining to the Ministry. The Division also assists in the development and management of the Ministry's legislative agenda.

Information Technology Unit

The Information Technology Unit is responsible for managing the Information Systems (IS) and Information Technology (IT) portfolios of the Ministry, as well as providing the necessary IT support to the Ministry.

The Procurement Unit

The Procurement Unit is responsible for acquiring goods and services required for the Ministry's operations. The Unit manages the procurement process, including identifying needs, sourcing suppliers, and ensuring timely delivery while adhering to budget constraints and regulatory requirements. The Procurement Unit plays a crucial role in optimizing costs, maintaining quality standards, and fostering supplier relationships to enhance overall organizational efficiency.

Internal Audit

The Internal Audit Unit provides independent and objective assurance and consulting services to the Accounting Officer aimed at adding value and improving the Ministry's operations. The Unit assists in meeting organisational objectives through the application of a disciplined approach to evaluating the effectiveness of governance, risk management and control processes.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF EXTERNAL DIVISIONS

Government Electrical Inspectorate Division (GEID)

The Government Electrical Inspectorate Division is responsible for testing and inspection and certification of electrical installations of buildings and facilities to meet local and international standards, and to certify whether these installations are compliant. Additionally, the Division is responsible for issuing Wireman's License and Projectionist's License to qualified and competent persons. The Division is also required to investigate fires in buildings and facilities to determine whether the cause was related to the electrical installation upon the request of the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service, Trinidad and Tobago Fire Services, Trinidad and Tobago Electricity Commission (T&TEC) and Insurance Companies.

Trinidad and Tobago Meteorological Service Division (TTMS)

The Trinidad and Tobago Meteorological Service Division is responsible for providing meteorological information and advice consistent with international standards, namely the World Meteorological Organization (WMO) and the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) standards. TTMS produces and distributes weather and climate information to the general public and key stakeholders in sectors such as aviation, maritime, agriculture, tourism, water and disaster management.

Impact of Functions of the Ministry of Public Utilities on Members of the Public

The Ministry of Public Utilities is responsible for the Utility Sector, such as electricity and electrical inspection, water and sewerage, telecommunications and postal services which positively impact the lives of Trinidad and Tobago's citizenry. These contribute valuable resources on which Trinidad and Tobago's basic infrastructure and human and economic development is based, measured and sustained.

Categories of Documents in the Possession of the Ministry of Public Utilities

The following documents are in the possession of the Ministry of Public Utilities, in accordance with Section 7 (1) (a) (ii) of the FOI Act:

- Files: Administrative, human resource management, financial, procurement, legal, conferences/seminars, programmes, projects, Cabinet notes, board meetings, committee meetings, technical assistance, local/regional/international organizations, and utilities.
- Financial Records: Financial and accounting statements and operational documents.
- Documents: Copies of legislation, laws, legal notices, bills, regulations, orders, Gazettes, brochures, bulletins, reports from Government agencies.
- Digital media: Photographs, CDs, DVDs, diskettes, videos and tapes pertaining to the Ministry's work.

Material prepared for publication or inspection

The Ministry produces the following documents that are available to the public:

- The Ministry's Quarterly Newsletter "Focus on MPU" (2007-2013)
- Utilities Assistance Programme (UAP) brochures
- Residential Electrification Assistance Programme (REAP) brochures
- Electrification Programme brochures
- Newspaper advertisements (Ministerial vacancies, Ministerial messages and statements)

Members of the public can also visit our website for additional information at: www.mpu.gov.tt

Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Ministry of Public Utilities

The following procedures are to be utilised when accessing documents from the Ministry of Public Utilities, in accordance with Section 7 (1) (a) (v) of the FOI Act.

(a) General Procedure

The Ministry's policy is to respond to all requests for information, both oral and written. However, in order to exercise the rights under the FOI Act (for example, the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the applicant must make the request in writing.

The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents), available at the Customer Services Unit and the Ministry's Library, for information that is not readily available to the public.

Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago
Ministry of Public Utilities

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENTS OF THE MINISTRY OF PUBLIC UTILITIES 2024
 ANNUAL STATEMENT ON THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) ACT CHAPTER 22:02

continued.

(b) Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of the request, it should be addressed to the Designated Officer of the Ministry (see Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

(c) Details in the Request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the requested records. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If applicants are unsure of how their request should be written or what details should be included, they should communicate with the Ministry's Designated Officer.

(d) Requests not handled under the FOI Act

A request under the FOI Act will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information that is readily available to the public, either from this Ministry or from another public authority, e.g. brochures, pamphlets, reports, etc.

(e) Retrieving Documents

The Ministry of Public Utilities is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession or can be retrieved from storage. Information stored in the National Archives or other storage centres will be retrieved in order to process the requests.

(f) Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information the Ministry has in its possession, custody or power. The Ministry is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If a legible copy of a document cannot be released, the Ministry may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply. Please note the Ministry is not compelled to do the following:

- Create new documents; or
- Perform research for the applicant.

(g) Time Limits

The FOI Act sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for the determination of a request for access to documents. The Ministry is required to grant the request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days, as required by Section 15 of the FOI Act. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, the applicant will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

Should the Ministry fail to meet this deadline, the FOI Act gives the applicant the right to proceed as though the request has been denied. The Ministry will diligently seek to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing the request may take longer than the statutory limit, the Ministry would acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Ministry has received the request and to ascertain its status.

(h) Fees and Charges

Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies or copies in some other form, such as on a tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred by duplication of the said material. Similarly, where documents in the public domain are made available to a member of the public, the Ministry may charge duplication fees in accordance with its normal replication policy.

Designated Officers in the Ministry of Public Utilities

The following are the Designated Officers charged with the responsibility for obtaining documents on request by the public in accordance with Section 7 (1) (a) (vi) of the FOI Act.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Government Electrical Inspectorate Division.

How to Request Information:

General Procedure:

Our policy is to answer all requests for information, both oral and written. However, in order to exercise your rights under the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the request must be made in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) which is available at any of the four Offices of the Government Electrical Inspectorate Division, for information that is not readily available to the public.

Addressing Requests:

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to the Chief Electrical Inspector (see section 7 (1) (a) (vi))

Details in the Request:

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with our Designated Officer (see section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

Request not handled under the FOIA:

A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information, which is readily available to the public, either from the Government Electrical Inspectorate Division or from another public authority.

RESPONDING TO YOUR REQUEST

Retrieving Documents:

Prior to the commencement of the Freedom of Information Act 1999 old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may therefore not be possible. Various laws regulations and manuals give the time periods for keeping records before they may be destroyed. For example, The Exchequer and Audit Act: Chap: 69:01.

Furnishing Documents:

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note we are not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- (b) Perform research for you.

TIME LIMITS

General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for determination of your request for access to documents. If we fail to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. We will try diligently to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, we will acknowledge your request and advise you of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, you may wish to call or write to confirm that we have received the request and to ascertain its status.

Time Allowed

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, you will be permitted to inspect the document and/or be provided with copies.

Fees and Refunds

The Freedom of Information Fees and Charges Regulations prescribe the fees related to the search, retrieval and provision of documents. You are entitled to receive the documents/s within seven days of payment of the relevant fee. If we fail to provide the information within the seven-day period, you are entitled to a refund of the fees paid in addition to free access to the documents/s requested.
