Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

Function and Structure of the Sugar Industry Labour Welfare Committee

The SILWC was incorporated by an Act of Parliament in 1951, Chapter 64:05. Its precursor the Sugar Industry Special Funds Act ('SISF'), Act of 1948, Chapter 64:04 provided the funding mechanism for housing loans to cane farmers and sugar workers.

The SISF Act provided the funding mechanism for housing loans. These were unique loans monetising labour from the borrower/s and friends and family members to fund those loans.

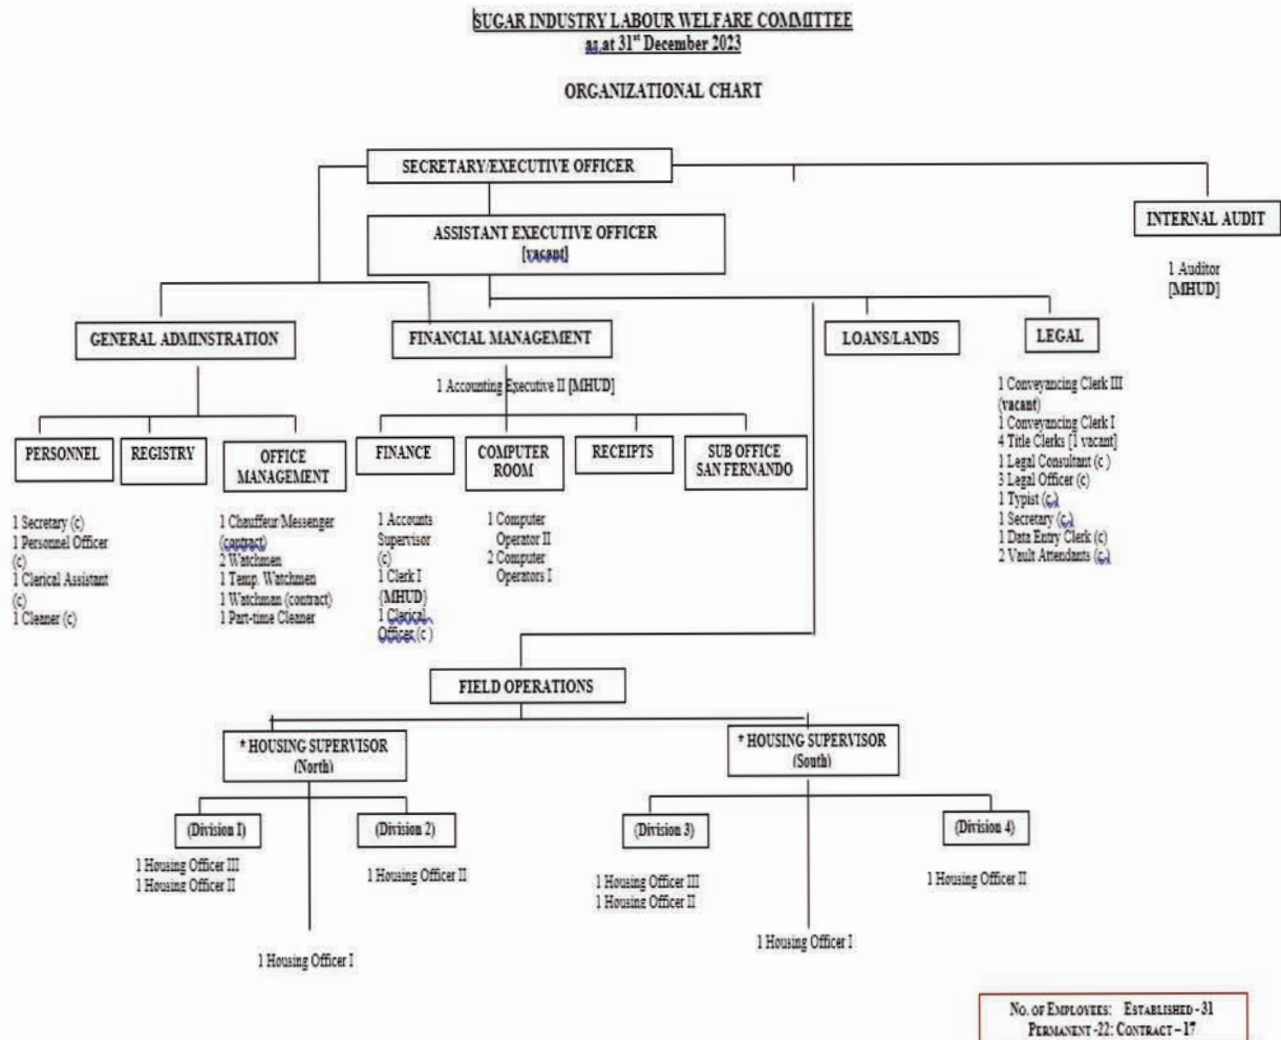

SILWC has housing developments where they own the land and leased to former sugar workers. For this reason they are responsible for: the preparation of deeds, releases and consents.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE AND STAFFING

The Sugar Industry Labour Welfare Committee is headed by the Secretary/Executive Officer and has thirty-one (31) established and five (5) contract positions in sum total, comprising of clerical, technical/professional, secretarial, administrative and manipulative staff. The core SILWC is divided into the following Divisions/Sections/Units; as outlined in the organizational chart attached.

The SILWC offers no literature by way of subscription services.

Section 7(1) (a) (v):

Procedure to be followed when a request for access to a document is made to the SILWC.

Applications to the SILWC must be made in writing. The Request for Access to Official Documents form can be downloaded from the website www.foia.gov.tt. The application should include:

- Full name of the Applicant
- Contact information for the Applicant
- The information requested and the format in which the information is to be provided
- Date of the request
- Signature of Applicant
- Details that will allow for easy identification and location of the records that are being requested.

The application should be addressed to the Freedom of Information Designated Officer of the SILWC ('the Designated Officer'). (see: Section 7(1)(a)(vi)) If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the Applicant. An applicant who is unsure how to write a request or of what details to include, should inquire from the Designated Officer.

A request under the FOIA may not be processed if it seeks information that is readily available in the public domain, either from the SILWC or another public authority, or if the said information is exempted. The SILWC is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession.

The SILWC is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If it cannot make a legible copy of the document to be released, it will not attempt to reconstruct it, instead the best copy possible will be furnished.

The SILWC will grant a request for access to information as soon as practicable but not later than 30 days of the date of receipt of the application, as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. Every effort will be made to comply with the time frames set out in the FOIA, but where it appears that processing a request may take longer than the statutory limit, the SILWC will acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of its status. If the SILWC fails to meet the deadlines set out in the FOIA, the applicant has the right to proceed as if the request has been denied.

Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some other form, such as tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.

How to Request Information:

- General – The SILWC is to respond to requests for information in writing. In order to have the rights provided under the FOIA for example, the right to challenge a decision if a request for information is refused, a request must be made in writing on the appropriate form, that is, the “Request for Access to Official Documents” form.
- Addressing Requests – To facilitate prompt handling of requests for access to information, the completed request form must be addressed to the Designated Officer.
- Details in the Requests – Applicants should provide details that will facilitate identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided clarification will be sought from the applicant. If the applicant is unsure of how to make the request or the details to be included, the applicant may communicate with the Designated Officer.

Requests Not Handled under the FOIA

- A request under the FOIA to access information that is currently available in the public domain will not be made available.

The SILWC is not compelled to do the following:

1. Create new documents.
2. Perform research for the applicant.

Fees and Refunds

The Freedom of Information Fees and Charges Regulations prescribe the fees related to the search, retrieval and provision of documents. The applicant is entitled to receive the document/s within seven days of payment of the relevant fee.
