PUBLIC STATEMENT OF QUEEN'S HALL

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF QUEEN'S, HALL 2024

IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTIONS 7, 8, and 9 OF
THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT, Chap. 22:02

In accordance with Sections 7, 8, and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act, Chap. 22:02 ("FOIA"), the Queen's Hall is required by law to publish and annually update the statements which list the documents and information generally available to the public.

The Act gives members of the public:

- A legal right for each person to access official documents (with exemptions) held by the Queen's Hall.
- A legal right for each person to have official information relating to him/her amended where it is incomplete, incorrect, or misleading.
- A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant's request for information under the FOIA.
- A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

SECTION 7 STATEMENTS

SECTION 7 (1) (a) (i)

Functions and Structure of the Queen's Hall

The Queen's Hall Act, Chap 40:50 provides for "the establishment of a Concert Hall in the Ward of St. Ann's and for the management and control thereof." Chap 40:50 also establishes Queen's Hall as a body corporate and places responsibility for its management, control and maintenance with the Queen's Hall Board.

CORPORATE STRUCTURE

Queen's Hall is a semi-autonomous agency which reports to the Ministry of Tourism, Culture and The Arts ("MTCA"). Queen's Hall was built in 1959 through the efforts of the music community led by Mrs. May Johnstone, a music teacher and is partially funded by the Government of Trinidad & Tobago. It is designed as a multi-purpose facility to accommodate theatrical presentations and various community activities.

The Hall is managed by the Queen's Hall Board led by the Chairman and supported by a General Manager. The Board carries out its mandate through the establishment of policy direction. Implementation of Board Policy and direction is the responsibility of the Executive.

The composition of the Queen's Hall Board with effect from May 9th 2024 is as follows:

Dr. Helmer Hilwig	-	Chairman
Ms. Candice Hicks	-	Deputy Chairman
Ms. Charlene Griffith	-	Member
Mr. Victor Prescod	-	Member
Ms. Karla Gonzales	-	Member
Mr. John Thomas	-	Member
Ms. Lissa-Anne Edwards	-	Member
Ms. Michele Isaac-Constantine	-	Member
Ms. Sunita Cindy Lemet	-	Member

The Executive is comprised of the General Manager, the Operations Manager and the Heads of Department – Lead Security, Administrative Co-ordinator, Accounts Co-ordinator, Maintenance Co-ordinator, Front of House Co-ordinator and Technical Co-ordinator.

VISION

"Our Vision is to create an organization which would facilitate a deep and lasting appreciation of all forms of the Arts among all sectors of society and promote the nurturing and development of excellence in the Performing Arts."

MISSION

"Our Mission is to provide a state-of-the-art facility in which all forms of the Arts will find a home. The Hall will be staffed with professionally trained personnel and will be available to clients at reasonable cost"

The Board has set up the following Committees through which it functions:

- Finance and Investment
- Human Resources
- Projects/Strategic Planning
- Marketing/Bookings
- Legal

SERVICES/PRODUCTS PROVIDED

Queen's Hall operates as a rental facility in that clients book Queen's Hall to present and promote their productions. Queen's Hall strives to maintain a high quality of service to its clients and makes every effort to provide the following facilities and equipment for rental to its clients:

REPORTING FUNCTIONS

Monthly financial reports are submitted to the Queen's Hall Board, the MTCA and to the Ministry of Finance. Quarterly Development Programme reports are sent to the MTCA.

OVERALL STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE

To ensure a financial system that facilitates the financial viability and sustainability of Queen's Hall in accordance with Government's rules and within the framework of its Government given mandate.

PROCUREMENT OF RESOURCES

Strategic Objective

- To ensure that all technology (theatre-related and otherwise) procured and implemented at Queen's Hall remains up-to-date and that the physical venue is safe, fit for purpose, maintained and enhanced to the benefit of all users of Queen's Hall.
- To ensure that all equipment, goods and services, etc. procured by Queen's Hall are accounted for and that the procedures used for their procurement are in accordance with the applicable legislations, regulations and Government procedures.

Tendering Procedures

Queen's Hall's procurement procedures are governed by the prevailing public procurement laws, policies, procedures and good practice with a view to ensuring transparency, accountability and value for money.

MARKETING

Strategic Objectives

- To promote Queen's Hall as the Concert Hall of choice for the performing arts
- To provide communications to the wider community on the role of Queen's Hall in the enrichment of the lives of the nation and the performing arts community of Trinidad and Tobago

HUMAN RESOURCE

Strategic Objective

To create an organization with highly trained personnel that are capable of providing managerial, technical, administrative and physical support to clients, which mirrors international best practices, while preserving the integrity of the facility and optimizing its use.

FUNCTIONS OF THE UNITS OF THE QUEEN'S HALL

CORE UNITS

The Structure comprises:

- Office of the General Manager
- Office of the Operations Manager
- Administrative Support Units
- Technical Units

THE GENERAL MANAGER has overall responsibility for managing Queen's Hall in accordance with the policies approved by the Board. The General Manager implements the decisions of the Board, supervises the administrative and technical operation of the facility organizing and directing the work of supervisory staff. The General Manager also manages the approved budget and monitors the accounting procedures.

THE OPERATIONS MANAGER is responsible for ensuring that the quality of the Queen's Hall services meet or exceed customer expectations. The Operations Manager provides oversight on all contracted services, maintenance and development projects. The Operations Manager has direct supervision over the Front of House, Maintenance and Technical Departments. The Operations Manager also directly assists the General Manager in preparing, tracking and monitoring annual budgets for recurrent and developmental draft estimates. This is a senior management position and the incumbent will act as General Manager in his/her absence.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT UNITS consist of Bookings, Legal, Procurement, Human Resource, Accounts, Information Technology, General Administrative Services, Health and Safety which provide support to the office of the General Manager and Operations Manager in planning, organising, directing and coordinating the technical and administrative support functions of the organisation.

THE MARKETING & BOOKINGS UNIT is responsible for the Queen's Hall corporate image, education and awareness, branding, advertising and public relations. This includes the provision of information to key internal and external stakeholders on a timely basis.

THE LEGAL UNIT is responsible for keeping Queen's Hall's operations compliant with all relevant laws and regulations. In the capacity of internal legal counsel the Unit safeguards the interests of the organization and, where necessary, manages legal proceedings. The Legal Unit also oversees the contract management portfolio of Queen's Hall and provides legal advice/opinions with a view to mitigating exposure to risks.

THE PROCUREMENT UNIT is responsible for the acquisition of goods, services and works for Queen's Hall while ensuring that its procurement activities/processes are executed in a manner that is consistent with all relevant procurement policies and laws in particular the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Property Act No. 1 of 2015 (as amended) and its concomitant Regulations.

THE HUMAN RESOURCE UNIT is responsible for managing all Human Resources and industrial relations functions relative to manpower planning; staff compensation; training and development and employee relations.

THE ACCOUNTING UNIT is responsible for the financial management of Queen's Hall. It ensures that accurate financial information is reported to the Board and Queen's Hall stakeholders in a timely manner.

THE GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES UNIT provides front of house services, which includes Ushers, Box Office and Cleaning services.

THE INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY UNIT provides technical and network support services to Queen's Hall. The IT Unit is also responsible for keeping abreast of the use of data and new technologies by remaining at the forefront of digital technology, understanding our audiences to provide live video streaming services for interaction with real and virtual spaces to connect the performers with their audience.

Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Queen’s Hall

How to Request Information

- General Procedure

Our policy is to answer all requests, both oral and written, for information. However, in order to exercise the rights given to you by the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if your request for official documents is refused), you must make your request in writing. The applicant must therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents which is available from the Designated Officer of the Queen’s Hall or at the website www.foia.gov.tt) for information that is not readily available to the public.

Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to the Designated Officer of the Queen’s Hall. See Section (7) (1) (a) (vi).

Details in the Request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with the Designated Officer of the Queen’s Hall.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

A request under the FOIA will not be processed if the information asked for is readily available to the public being already available within the public domain.

- Responding to your Request

Retrieving Documents

The Queen’s Hall is required to furnish copies of official documents only when they are in our possession or we can retrieve them from our document storage facility.

Note

Prior to the commencement of the FOIA, old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may therefore be impossible. Various laws, regulations, and manuals give the time periods for keeping records before they may be destroyed e.g. the Exchequer and Audit Act Chapter 69:01.

2013—Continued

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF QUEEN'S HALL 2024—CONTINUED

Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note we are not compelled to do the following:

- Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- Perform research for you.

Time Limits

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than thirty (30) days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. Applicants whose requests are incomplete or unclear will be promptly informed of same by the Designated Officer who will make arrangements to consult with the applicant with a view to clarifying the request. The time limit of thirty (30) days will be suspended while consultation with the applicant is being undertaken, and resumes on the day the applicant confirms or alters the request.

Every effort will be made by Queen's Hall to comply with the timeframe set out in the FOIA, but where the processing of a request unavoidably may take longer than the statutory limit, the Queen's Hall will advise the applicant by letter and ask for an additional period of time to provide the information. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, the applicant will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies. Applicants whose request for documents is refused, will be notified by the Designated Officer in writing of the reasons for refusal. The Designated Officer will consult with the applicant about alternative recourses that are open to him/her.

Fees and refunds

Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some form such as a tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant shall pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.
