Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

Updated Public Statement of the Office of the Parliament – 2023 under the Freedom of Information Act

In accordance with sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Chap. 22:02 the Office of the Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago (hereinafter referred to as “the Parliament”) is required by law to publish the following statements which lists the documents and information generally available to the public.

The Act gives members of the public:

- (1) A legal right for each person to access information held by the Parliament;
- (2) A legal right for each person to have official information relating to him/herself amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading;
- (3) A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant’s request for information under the FOIA;
- (4) A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

SECTION 7 - STATEMENTS

Section 7 (1)(A)(I)

Structure and Function of the Parliament

The offices of the Parliament have their origins in the Department of the Colonial Secretary's Office, which was in existence up to the attainment of Independence in 1962. The Trinidad and Tobago (Constitution) Order in Council, 1961 created the bicameral Legislature that is in operation today. The Legislature today is supported by an organization comprising over 300 members of staff, known as the Office of the Parliament, the administrative management of which is exercised by the Clerk of the House.

The Mission of the Office of the Parliament is: -

“To provide Parliamentarians and other stakeholders with high quality professional support services”

The key objectives of the Office of the Parliament are:

SECTION 7(1) (a) (v)Procedure to be followed to access official documents under the Act

How to request information

1. Requests for public documents and public services under the Act will be entertained between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Monday to Friday (except on public holidays). Selected legislation, debates and general parliamentary information are available on our website, www.ttparliament.org.

2. All requests for access to documents that are not readily available in the public domain are to be made, in writing, on the Request for Access to Official Documents(s) Form (pursuant to Section 13 of the Act) that is available from the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer or from the FOI Unit, Ministry of Communications at their website: www.foia.gov.tt
3. Queries for amendments to documents containing personal information about the applicant are to be directed to the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer, in writing, in the form of a letter.
4. To ensure prompt handling of requests, please address all requests to the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer of the Office of the Parliament. Contact information for the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer is always available on the Parliament's website.
5. Requests will be acknowledged as official only when made on the prescribed form.
6. Applicants must provide sufficient information to enable the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer to identify the document(s) being requested.
7. The general policy is to answer all requests for information, both oral and written, in like manner. However, in order to derive the rights given to the applicant under the Act (for example the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the applicant must make such requests for information in writing (and these will be the only requests viewed as official requests under the Act).
8. If insufficient information is provided regarding the information being requested, clarification will be sought from the applicant.
9. If the applicant is not sure how to write his/her request or what details to include therein, prior communication with the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer, or the FOI Unit, Ministry of Communications, at their website: www.foia.gov.tt is recommended.
10. A request under the Act will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information which is readily available to the public, either from this public authority or from another public authority, for example, by way of brochures, reports, etc. Where possible, the applicant will be directed to these public sources.

Time Permitted

1. Applicants will be notified within thirty (30) calendar days or before whether or not their request is approved. Requests may also be partially approved.
2. Applicants whose requests are incomplete or unclear will be informed of the same by the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer who will make arrangements to consult with the applicant, with a view to clarifying the request.
3. The time limit of thirty (30) days will be suspended while consultation with the applicant is being undertaken and will resume on the day the applicant confirms or alters the request.
4. An applicant whose request for documents is refused will be notified, in writing, of the reasons for refusal. The applicant will be informed of alternative recourses that are open to him/her in light of the refusal.
5. Subject to the above item 3, if Parliament fails to meet the thirty (30)-day deadline, the Act gives the applicant the right to proceed as though his/her request has been denied.
6. If it appears that processing the applicant's request may take longer than the thirty (30)-day statutory limit, Parliament will acknowledge the receipt and advise the applicant of its status and may request a formal extension of time to deliver the requested information (which must be approved by the applicant).

7. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer has received the request and to ascertain its status.

8. The delivery date of the request will be calculated as the date it was received by mail or the date it was delivered to the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer via e-mail.

Fees and Charges

1. Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some form such as a tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant shall pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.

2. Details of charges for duplication of documents will be determined based upon individual requests by applicants.

SECTION 7 (1)(a)(vi)

Requests must be addressed to the Designated Officer or in his absence the Alternate Officer:

Designated Officer:

Mr. Jason Elcock – Manager, Corporate Communications

FUNCTIONS OF THE DIVISIONS OF INVESTT

InvesTT is made up of three main divisions, namely: Investments; Investor Services; and Investment Marketing and Communications. The organisational structure is included below. The three divisions are overseen by the President, who is supported by an Executive Assistant pool. InvesTT does not currently include support functions such as Human Resources, Legal, Procurement, Internal Audit, Finance or IT in its organisation structure. These services are provided by an ongoing Shared Services Agreement with e Teck. E Teck provides these services through its own departments of the same name at no cost to InvesTT.

Investments

The Investments Division of InvesTT provides “first point of contact” services for all foreign investors in Trinidad and Tobago. The division provides best-in-class performance in the provision of timely and relevant data to investors in all non-oil and gas sectors. The Investments Division also hosts end-to-end site visits for all potential foreign investors and sets up meetings with key Government and private sector entities. The Investments Division continues to facilitate the investment interest until the investor commits to an investment in Trinidad and Tobago.

Investor Services

Investor Services provides “first point of contact” Facilitation and Aftercare Services for all locally based investors (foreign affiliates and domestic firms) throughout their investment decision-making process until the set-up of their operations in Trinidad and Tobago. InvesTT continues to provide these services even after the entities become operational. Investor Services works intimately with investors to provide reliable, timely facilitation and strategic interventions in an effort to continually reduce transaction times for the successful implementation of investment projects. Investor Services also targets Local Direct Investment for expansion.

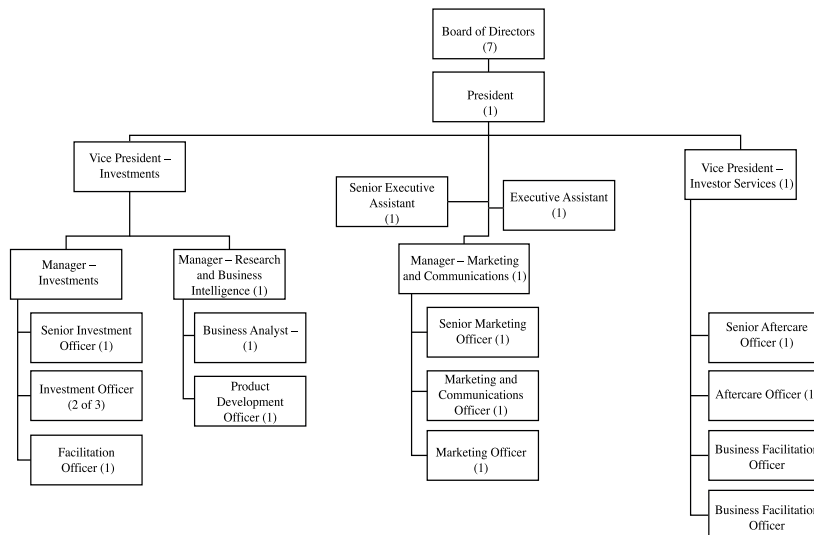

Investment Marketing & Communications

InvesTT’s comprehensive marketing effort promotes awareness of Trinidad and Tobago as a location for investment and highlights current investment opportunities. It also enhances the company’s brand and amplifies InvesTT’s reach through its web presence, which creates awareness among newly targeted investors, engages clients of InvesTT in social media and provides marketing support and collateral. The Marketing Department plays a lead role in the generation of requests for information/investment leads for the Investments and Investor Services Divisions.

The marketing portfolio comprises the following elements:

- Advertising
- Public Relations
- Brand Promotion through Website & Social Media Management
- Development of Collateral Materials
- Strategic Marketing Campaigns

There is no literature available by subscription services. Literature/marketing material on investment opportunities in Trinidad & Tobago are published on InvesTT's website at www.investt.co.tt

SECTION 7(1)(a)(v)

PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED WHEN A REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO A DOCUMENT IS MADE TO INVESTT

To exercise the right of access under Sections 11 and 13 of the FOIA, the appropriate form must be completed and submitted to the Designated Officer or Alternate Officer at our office. These forms may be obtained either from the Freedom of Information Unit's website at www.foia.gov.tt or at our office.

Requests for documents from InvesTT must be requested formally in writing to the Designated Officer or Alternate Officer identified at Section 7 (1)(a)(vi), copying the President, InvesTT. The form must include at minimum the following details:

- Name of the applicant (full name preferred)
- Contact information for the applicant
- Information requested and format in which the information is to be provided
- Date of request
- Signature of applicant

Details in Request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the documents that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If the applicant is unsure as to how to adequately complete the form, the applicant should contact the Designated Officer who will take all reasonable steps to render the necessary assistance.

REQUESTS NOT HANDLED UNDER THE FOIA

A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that the applicant asks for access to documents which are classified as exempt under Part IV of the FOIA or documents falling under Section 12 of the FOIA.

RESPONDING TO THE REQUEST

Retrieving and Furnishing Documents

InvesTT is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession or can be retrieved from storage.

TIME LIMITS

General

The FOIA prescribes a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for InvesTT to communicate to the applicant its approval or refusal of a request for access to documents. InvesTT will make all attempts to adhere to this time limit; however, if it appears that the processing of the request will not be within the said time limit, InvesTT will advise the applicant of same. If InvesTT fails to meet the thirty (30) day deadline, the FOIA gives the applicant the right to proceed as though his/her request has been denied.

The possibility exists that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected. Applicants are asked to call or write to confirm that InvesTT has received the request, and to ascertain its status.
