SECTION 7(1)(a)(v)*Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Company*General Procedure

In order to have the rights given to applicants under the FOIA, applicants are required to submit requests for information in writing and in accordance with Section 13 of the FOIA using the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) which may be found on the website of the Freedom of Information Unit (www.foia.gov.tt).

The relevant information that must be provided to the Company includes:

- Name of applicant (full name preferred)
- Contact information
- Information requested and format to provide the information
- Date of Request
- Signature of Applicant

Completed applications should be addressed to the Designated Officer of the Company (see Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)) and may be delivered to the Company by hand (between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Monday to Friday), by post or emailed to the address of the Designated Officers.

Addressing Requests

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If the applicant is unsure how to write his/her request or what details to include, the applicant should communicate with the Company's Designated Officer.

Requests Not Handled under the FOIA

In accordance with Section 12 of the FOI Act, requests that will not be processed are as follows:

- a. Documents which contain information, which is open to public access, as part of a public register
- b. Documents which contain information that is available for purchase by the public
- c. Documents that are available for public inspection in a registry maintained by the Registrar General or other public authority
- d. Documents which are stored for preservation or safe custody.

Responding to Requests

The Company is only required to furnish copies of documents that it has in its possession or can be retrieved from storage.

Prior to the commencement of the Freedom of Information Act Chapter 22:02, old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may therefore be impossible. Various laws, regulations and manuals give the time periods for keeping records before they may be destroyed. For example, the Exchequer and Audit Act, Chap. 69:01.

Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information which the Company has in its possession, custody or power. The Company is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If the Company cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note we are not compelled to do the following:-

- Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- Perform research for you.

Time Allowed

The Company will determine whether to grant the applicant's request for access to information as soon as possible but no later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date was received as required under Section 15 of the FOIA.

Where the applicant's request is unclear or incomplete, the time limit of thirty (30) calendar days will be suspended while consultation with the applicant is being undertaken and resumes on the day the applicant confirms or alters the request.

Refusal of Requests

An Applicant whose request for documents is refused, will be notified by the Designated Officer in writing of the reasons for refusal and the rights of the applicant according to the FOIA.

Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)Officers in the Company are responsible for:

- 1) The initial receipt of and action upon notices under Section 10;
- 2) Requests for access to documents under Section 13; and
- 3) Applications for correction of personal information under Section 36 of the FOIA.
