Clause 1 of the Bill would provide for the short title.

Clause 2 of the Bill would amend the Prime Minister's Pension Act, Chap. 2:51, in section 4A, by repealing subsection (1) and substituting a new subsection to provide for new rates for the payment of pensions to a Prime Minister.

Clause 3 of the Bill would amend the Gambling and Betting Act, Chap. 11:19—

- (a) in section 19, to provide separately for the fines and terms of imprisonment, on summary conviction to a fine of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for three years or conviction on indictment to a fine of three million dollars and to imprisonment for seven years;
- (b) in section 20(4), to increase the fine for every person concerned in the promotion and conduct of the lottery which is deemed not to be lawful to thirty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years; and
- (c) in section 21(3), to increase the fine related to the exemption of certain small lotteries conducted for charitable, sporting or other purposes, to thirty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Clause 4 of the Bill would amend the Immigration Act, Chap. 18:01, including the Immigration Regulations, to provide for new definitions of “Customs laws”, “data message”, “electronic” and “electronic record”, to provide for the submission of electronic declarations by persons entering or leaving Trinidad and Tobago and for the disclosure of information in arrival and departure declarations to the Comptroller of Customs and such other persons as the Minister may prescribe by Order for the purpose of enforcing, or ensuring compliance with, the Customs laws.

Clause 5 of the Bill would amend the Statistics Act, Chap. 19:02, to provide for the inclusion of the Governor of the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago as a competent authority for the purposes of section 17 of the Statistics Act.

Clause 6 of the Bill would amend the National Lotteries Act, Chap. 21:04—

- (a) by deleting the definition of “instant lottery surplus”;
- (b) by amending section 21, to provide that the expenditure described in paragraphs (b) to (f) of subsection (1) shall not exceed the amount fixed by the Minister;
- (c) by amending section 23, to allow for the National Lotteries Control Board to make quarterly payments to the Consolidated Fund as opposed to annual payments;
- (d) by repealing section 23A of the Act; and
- (e) by inserting a new section 33 to introduce new criminal offences in connection with an on-line lottery, such as its operation, the sale or distribution of tickets, possession or control of tickets, the receipt of a play, issuance of a ticket or pay-out of any money pursuant to the results of an on-line lottery draw regulated under the National Lotteries Act.

Clause 7 of the Bill would amend the Tobacco Control Act, Chap. 30:04 to increase the penalties under section 37 in respect of a contravention of sections 13 to 17A and any provision of that Act for which no penalty is prescribed.

Clause 8 of the Bill would amend the National Insurance Act, Chap. 32:01, by increasing the rate of national insurance contributions under the Second Schedule to the Act.

Clause 9 of the Bill would amend the Sport and Culture Fund Act, Chap. 40:54, by deleting the definitions of “instant lottery” and “instant lottery surplus” and by amending section 5, by deleting paragraph (a) and substituting a new paragraph (a) to provide for deposits made under the National Lotteries Act, to be one of the resources that form part of the Sport and Culture Fund.

Clause 10 of the Bill would amend the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Act, Chap. 48:50—

- (a) in section 19, by increasing the penalty for failure to register the transfer of a used motor vehicle within seven days after the change of possession, from two hundred dollars to four hundred dollars, and for failure to register the transfer of a used motor vehicle within fourteen days after the change of possession from five thousand dollars to six thousand dollars;
- (b) in section 21(1), by increasing the penalty where the owner or driver or other person in charge of any goods vehicle, public service vehicle, rented car or trailer is loaded so as to exceed the maximum gross weight or the number of passengers, respectively, covered by the registration from eight thousand dollars to twelve thousand dollars;
- (c) in section 42(1), by increasing the penalty where a person drives a motor vehicle without a valid driving permit, from seven hundred and fifty dollars to fifteen hundred dollars, and from fifteen hundred dollars to three thousand dollars, where the person has never been the holder of a valid driving permit or has been previously refused a valid driving permit or is disqualified from holding or obtaining a valid driving permit;
- (d) in section 56(3), by increasing the penalty where a person drives or is in charge of a motor vehicle on any road, or a learner who is in a motor vehicle on any road receiving instruction, fails to have on his person or in the motor vehicle for production, his driving permit or provisional permit, as the case may be;
- (e) in section 61A, by increasing the fines and penalties in that section;
- (f) in section 70A(2), by increasing the penalty where a person drives or attempts to drive, or be in charge of a motor vehicle on a road or other public place, if he has consumed alcohol in such a quantity that the proportion thereof in his breath or blood exceeds the prescribed limit, in the case of a first conviction, from twelve thousand dollars to twenty-four thousand dollars and in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, from twenty-two thousand, five hundred dollars to forty-five thousand dollars;

- (g) in section 72, by increasing the penalty where a person drives a motor vehicle on a road without due care and attention or without reasonable consideration for other persons using the road, from one thousand dollars to two thousand dollars;

21. The Brewery Act is amended—

Chap. 87:52 amended

(a) by repealing section 3 and substituting the following section:

“Licence to brew
 3. (1) A brewer in Trinidad and Tobago shall, on an annual basis, take out a licence to brew, and shall pay to the Comptroller—

- (a) a duty calculated in accordance with subsection (2); and
- (b) the annual licence fee specified in Schedule 1.

Schedule 1

(2) An applicant for—

- (a) a licence for the first time shall pay the annual licence fee corresponding to the projected annual production volume, as declared in the approved form; or
- (b) the renewal of a licence shall pay the annual licence fee corresponding to the actual annual production volume for the twelve-month period immediately preceding the renewal, as declared in the approved form.

(3) A licence to brew shall be in such form as the Comptroller shall direct, and shall, whenever issued, be granted only on payment of the duty in full, and such licence shall expire on the 31st December in each year.

(4) A brewer shall, at the time of application or renewal of a licence, submit to the Comptroller a statutory declaration certifying the accuracy of the projected or actual annual production volume, as the case may be, for the period to which the duty relates, supported by records required to be kept under this Act.

(5) A licence issued under this section shall not authorise the brewer to sell beer other than that brewed by himself, and the quantity to be sold at any one time shall not be less than 4.5 litres or twelve bottles of 375 millilitres each.

(6) If any person brews beer for sale without having in force a proper licence under this Act, he is liable to a fine of ten thousand dollars, and all wort, beer, vessels, utensils and materials for brewing shall be forfeited.

(7) If any brewer sells any quantity of beer less than 4.5 litres or twelve bottles of 375 millilitres each, he shall be deemed to be a retailer and is liable to the penalty for retailing beer without a licence.

(8) Where the actual annual production volume of a brewer exceeds—

(a) the projected annual production volume declared under subsection (2)(a); or

(b) the actual annual production volume declared under subsection (2)(b), the brewer shall pay to the Comptroller the difference between—

(i) the licence fee paid upon the issue or renewal of the licence; and

(ii) the licence fee properly chargeable under Schedule 1 based on the actual annual production volume.

(9) A brewer who fails to pay the difference under subsection (8) within thirty days of being notified by the Comptroller, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars, in addition to the unpaid fee.

(10) For the purposes of this section—

“actual annual production volume” means the quantity of beer

produced during the twelve months immediately preceding the renewal of a licence, expressed in litres;

“projected annual production volume” means the estimated total volume of beer measured in litres intended to be produced during the first year of operation, expressed in litres;

“approved form” means a form approved and issued by the Comptroller for the purposes of this Act; and

(11) The Minister may, by Order, amend Schedule 1.

(12) A licence to brew issued under this Act before 1st January, 2026, shall continue in force until its expiry, or such other date as the Minister may by Order, prescribe;

(b) in section 8—

(i) in paragraph (d), by deleting the words “Table in the Schedule” and substituting the words “Table in Schedule 2”; and
